Two Rallies for the Price of One (and a half)!

On Saturday November 3rd the Champaign County Sports Car Club will put on two (yes 2) road rallies for your motoring pleasure!

First up is the Northwest Adventure (and TSD) Rally.

Registration will take place at 10:00am in the south edge of the Home Depot parking lot (adjacent to the Tire Barn parking lot). Home Depot is located at the southeast corner of Exit 181 on I-74 in Champaign, IL.

The first cars will start around 11:00 and the rally will end around 1:00pm at Dos Reales Mexican Restaurant, 1407 N. Prospect, Champaign, IL where everyone is welcome. Whether you're participating in this rally, the other rally, both rallies or none at all the food is guaranteed to be good.

Jerry White has prepared a brisk and challenging rally that will keep you strapped in your seat. Be there! The cost is $20 per team.

Next up is the Yellow Line Rally.

Registration starts at 2:15pm near the "F" sign in the southwest corner of the Meijer parking lot, 2500 Philo Road, Urbana, IL.

The first car will start around 3:00pm and will finish around 5:00pm at the Monical's Pizza, 2720 S. Philo Road, Urbana, IL where (and you've probably heard this before) everyone is welcome!

Jon has put together a precision TSD event that everyone can do well on. He will give you the time you are to be at every instruction so all you have to do is follow his directions! The cost is $20 unless you ran the Northwest Adventure and then it's only $10.

But Wait, There's More! There will also be special prizes for the best finishes overall for the day! Come one come all!
